Interesting Soldier Letter.

The following are extracts from a letter from a Rockingham soldier of the 322nd infantry, 81st division:

POINCON LES LARREY, FRANCE.

Have just been returned to my old company. A few faces are missing, dropped from the company roster, but not forgotten. They fell in the last two days of the war when our regiment went through a part of the terrific drive of the last few ments. In England I enjoyed light skirmishes in the Battles of Beer and Scotch. Now I flirt occasionally with the French twins, "Vin Rouge and Vin Blanc." We who are not officers could not get in the famous French Battle of Champagne, on a dollar a day, less fines and insurance.

A few days ago I saw an old Frenchman kill a hog (where we scald and scrape off the hair, the French build a straw fire around him and burn it off), so I camped around his place for a few days and accepted his invi-doses made me feel fine. Three boxes entirely relieved the trouble." (Statement given March 25, 1915.)

On May 18, 1918, Mr. Young said: "I still gladly recommend Doan's as they did me a world of good. What I said in my former statement still holds good."

Optimistic.

First Hobo (at early dawn)—I dreamed last night that I found a quart bottle of alcohol. Just as I removed the cork and raised the neck to my lips a rooster crowed somewhere and I woke up. Dhat's hard luck.

Second Hobo—Not so, pardner; in de first place probably it was wood alcohol, and, secondly, we may be able to locate dat rooster and have him for breakfast.

Valuable Connections.

"You treat your cook as if she were a privileged character."
"As long as she is here we expect to be well taken care of."
"In a culinary way?"
"Not entirely. She has a brother on the police force, another brother drives a coal truck and her sweet-heart is our ice man."

What's a Tip for, Anyway?

Noah (bussing the ark building)—Day dreaming on the job again, son? What's the idea?
Japhet—With the inside information we've got, dad, can't you think of some way we can beat the market for a few thousand simoleons?—Buffalo Express.

Even It Up.

Jones—I understand that you have promised that one job to twenty different men if you are elected.
Politician—True. But as I have but one chance in twenty of being elected they all stand as good a chance as I do.

What Is Rheumatism? Why Suffer from It?

Sufferers Should Realize That It Is a Blood Infection.

Doubtless like other sufferers, you have often asked yourself this question, which continues to remain unanswered.

Science has proven that Rheumatism is caused by a germ in your blood, and the only way to reach it is by a remedy which eliminates and removes these little pain demons. This explains why limiments and lotions can do no permanent good, for they cannot possibly reach these germs, which infect your blood by the millions.

S. S. S. has been successfully used for Rheumatism for more than fifty years. Try it to-day, and you will find yourself at last on the right track to get rid of your Rheumatism. For treatment of your individual case address Chief Medical Adviser, Swift Specific Co., Dept. 43, Atlanta, Ga.

whole village. The kids wear our cast-off clothes, eat all our scraps and incidentally lick our mess kit cleaner than we could wash it; and then after eating apparently to the limit, the little fellows will march off with an "au revoir" and wade into some other soldier's plate.

I don't think I have ever written you of the several engagements I have starred in. "Com-bien" and the Battle of the Mass, waged three times a day. Another is the Battle of Cognac. I was ne wat this latter game, was slightly wounded and have since gone in for only slight engage-also saved.

A Rockingham

Man's Experience.

Can you doubt the evidence of this Rockingham citizen?

You can verify Rockingham endorsement. Read this:

W. V. Young, prop. grocery, Kinney St., says: About three years ago my back ached and felt so weak, I could hardly stand the misery. When I got down I could scarcely straighten and mornings it was almost impossible for me to get out of bed. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Fox Drug Store and a few
